eligibility for all in-service untrained teachers to undertake D.El.Ed. programme only through ODL on NIOS (unless already enrolled and undergoing training in a recognised Teacher Education Institute (TEI) prior to the amendment).

The Govt. will, each month, the School Principals (untrained school) and other staff members of such schools and Institutes through the concerned authorities and publish large scale advertisements for wider coverage.

vi. States must undertake an awareness programme amongst the teachers also, clearly indicating that this would be the last opportunity for untrained and unqualified teachers to enter the teaching profession which their services will be required for the next few years. It is to be noted that this last opportunity is available only for untrained teachers and not for those who are already trained. A database of such teachers in each State.

vii. For creation of database of untrained elementary teacher for D.El.Ed., there will be an On-line Portal of NIOS which will have the following options:

- Login/Registration by the State Coordinator
- Login/Registration by the individual untrained teacher

The Govt. will also provide a database of untrained elementary teachers in each State and Govt. will also on the portal especially prepared by NIOS for this purpose. This portal will also be utilized to monitor the progress of training in each State/UT.
